British North America in the mid-1800s

| Colony      | Physical Features   | Political Features   | People   | Economic Features   |
|-------------|---|--|--|---|
| Canada East | - St. Lawrence- climate: cold winter /hot summer                  | <ul> <li>Political Deadlock with Canada West.Issues:</li> <li>1) Representation by populationvs. Equal representation.Canada East preferred equalrep because the population inCanada West was growing andthey were worried they wouldlose their culture to thegrowing British influence.</li> <li>2) Transportation:Didn't want to spend moneyon increasing transportationfacilities because they felt thatbetter links with Canada Westwould threaten their identity.</li> </ul> | <ul> <li>Most of the population (about 74%) was concentrated in Canada East and Canada West.</li> <li>mainly French speaking</li> <li>The Great Migration brought greater diversity in the 1830s and 1840s</li> <li>number of First Nations people are not known because they often lived on the fringes of settler society and census officials did not consider it important to get an accurate count of all the First Nations people in the colonies.</li> </ul>  | <ul> <li>Industry began aroundMontreal, 1840s</li> <li>children as young as sixworked in factories</li> <li>steam-powered factories by1850s</li> <li>Montreal was the mostindustrialized city in NorthAmerica in 1860s</li> <li>It was especially known forfood, footwear, and textilefactories</li> </ul> |
| Canada West | - Great Lakes & St.Lawrence- climate: cold winter /hot summer | <ul> <li>Political Deadlock with Canada East.Issues: <ol> <li>Rep. by Pop. vs Equal Rep.Canada West preferred rep bypop because the population ofCanada West was increasingfaster than Canada East.</li> <li>Transportation:Wanted to spend money toincrease transportationfacilities so that they couldincrease trade and wealth.</li> </ol></li></ul>   | <ul> <li>Most of the population (about 74%) was concentrated in Canada East and Canada West.</li> <li>mainly English speaking</li> <li>The Great Migration brought greater diversity in the 1830s and 1840s</li> <li>escaped slaves settled here after crossing the U.S. border via the Underground Railroad.</li> <li>number of First Nations people are not known because they often lived on the fringes of settler society and census officials did not consider it important to get an accurate count of all the First Nations people in the colonies.</li> </ul> | <ul> <li>Industrialization started in1870s</li> <li>Largest industry was textilemanufacture (ex. Clothing,curtains etc.)</li> <li>Metal factories followed</li> <li>Eventually became centre ofCanada's manufacturingeconomy</li> </ul>  |

| Maritimes | - Atlantic Ocean- climate: warm & humidsummer; snowy & coldwinter | <ul> <li>Consisted of several small coloniesConsidered joining together because asingle government controlling thislarger population would have agreater influence in North America.</li> <li>Supported by Britain because theythought it would be less expensive tohave one colonial government asopposed to 2 or 3.</li> <li>Scheduled a conference inCharlottetown to discuss Maritimeunion.</li> <li>PEI:</li> <li>When Britain took over PEI fromFrance most of the land on PEI wasgiven to wealthy families who lived inBritain.</li> <li>In other colonies farmers could buy</li> </ul> | <ul> <li>had about 25% of the population</li> <li>mainly English speaking but withsome sections that spoke mainly</li> <li>French</li> <li>The Great Migration broughtgreater diversity in the 1830s and1840s</li> <li>escaped slaves settled here(especially in N.S.) after crossing theU.S. border via the UndergroundRailroad.</li> <li>number of First Nations people arenot known because they often livedon the fringes of settler society andcensus officials did not consider itimportant to get an accurate countof all the First Nations people in thecolonies</li> </ul> | <ul> <li>Based on shipbuilding</li> <li>Many workers were skilled</li> <li>Later adapted to steampower</li> <li>Farming and loggingimportant in rural areas</li> <li>spread out population meantthere was littleindustrialization</li> </ul> |
|-----------|---|---|---|--|
|           |   | <ul><li>land relatively cheaply but in PEI this was impossible.</li><li>PEI saw itself as different from the rest of British NA because of this issue.</li></ul>  | colonies.   |  |
| West      | - mountains-climate: warm & moist   | Strong American influence.Trying to decide whether to:- join the rest of BNA colonies underBritain. (other colonies were far away)OR-The United States and become anAmerican Republic   | <ul> <li>sparsely populated because noteasily accessible.</li> <li>fur traders (English &amp; French); FirstNations; Americans (gold miners)</li> <li>The Great Migration broughtgreater diversity in the 1830s and1840s</li> <li>number of First Nations people arenot known because they often livedon the fringes of settler society andcensus officials did not consider itimportant to get an accurate countof all the First Nations people in thecolonies.</li> </ul>   | <ul> <li>thinly populated and littleindustrialization in the 1880s</li> <li>First Nations and HBCemployees dependent on furtrade</li> <li>B.C. based on forestry andshipping – did not needfactories.</li> </ul>                        |